

Punarjani launched at Central Prison

Published: February 6, 2015

The second phase of Punarjani, a scheme initiated by the Department of Prisons and Canara Bank, was launched at the Central Prison, Poojappura, on Thursday. Home Minister Ramesh Chennithala inaugurated the programme in the presence of Director General of Prisons and Correctional Services T.P. Senkumar. General Manager of Canara Bank U. Ramesh Kumar was present.

In the second phase of the programme, the bank would open zero-balance accounts for jail inmates and provide loans to financially backward dependents of prisoners.
